Job Description:

Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C. is seeking a Commercial Litigation Associate licensed to practice in NY with 5-8 years' experience for its Garden City, NY location. Viable candidates should have experience or demonstrated interest in complex litigation. Candidates must be prepared to assume an active case load, must be driven and know how to deliver successful results for clients. Meyer Suozzi is committed to client service and seeks candidates that share this commitment.

About the Department Chair:

Kevin Schlosser is Chair of the Litigation & Dispute Resolution Department at Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C. Mr. Schlosser has engineered the legal strategy for a broad range of cases and arbitrations, including complex commercial matters, corporate and partnership disputes, business torts, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, breach of contract, business valuations, employment and restrictive covenants, intellectual property, trademarks, copyrights, unfair competition, false and misleading advertising, trade secrets, professional liability and malpractice claims, construction law and mechanics liens, real estate, commercial landlord-tenant disputes, ERISA, health law, Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act class actions, products liability, insurance coverage, claims and defense, including disability insurance claims, and the prosecution and defense of other tort-related claims. His clients consist of some of the largest companies in the world, as well as local businesses and individuals, including senior law partners, accountants, doctors and others in the professions. A proven appellate lawyer, he is also an accomplished trial attorney, whose victories include million-dollar recoveries and a record-breaking jury verdict.

Mr. Schlosser is a dedicated workplace mentor for incoming associates, imparting his experience with clarity, communication and commitment – the essential components for a successful mentorship program.
