Erin A. Lue-Hing is an associate in the Litigation Dispute Resolution practice group at Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C. in Garden City, New York.

Prior to joining Meyer Suozzi, Ms. Lue-Hing provided comprehensive legal guidance to municipalities and school districts in Nassau and Suffolk counties on issues involving labor and employment matters, union negotiations, policy drafting and implementation, artificial intelligence, compliance with Federal and State financial aid regulations, and tax certiorari matters.

Ms. Lue-Hing graduated from Columbia University with a Master of Public Administration, and went on to graduate from New York Law School, where she served as a member of the Moot Court Association and co-author of the Wagner National Labor and Employment Law Moot Court Competition. Ms. Lue-Hing also served in the New York Civil Liberties Union clinic, Securities Arbitration clinic, and the Office of the Counsel to the Mayor of New York City, where she assisted in various administrative law, labor law, and civil rights matters.

In 2025, Ms. Lue-Hing was selected by Super Lawyers to the New York Metro Rising Stars. She shares this distinction with no more than 2.5 percent of attorneys in each state.
