Michael D. Napolitano is a Shareholder of Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C. (Garden City, NY) and chair of the firm's Personal Injury group. With more than 34 years of experience, Mr. Napolitano represents clients with matters ranging from motor vehicle, slip/trip and fall to complex construction accidents. He has excelled in successfully representing his clients in all types of general negligence actions which has resulted in millions of dollars of recovery. Mr. Napolitano has successfully litigated and obtained hundreds of injury settlements for his clients and prides himself on continuous communications and accessibility.

Mr. Napolitano's attention to detail and his responsiveness to his clients are a hallmark of his practice. His thoroughness and preparation allows the firm to secure the maximum recovery on each case. He is involved in every aspect of the client's case and it is precisely this personalized service upon which his practice was built.

Prior to joining Meyer Suozzi in April of 2010, Mr. Napolitano was in private practice and performed Of Counsel work for personal injury firms including trials and arbitrations. In his practice, he also handled all phases of defense matters for an out of state automobile insurance carrier. Prior to being a solo practitioner, Mr. Napolitano was a Senior Trial Associate for the Garden City firm of Shaw, Licitra, Gulotta, Eserino & Henry, P.C. He began his personal injury career as an Assistant Town Attorney for the Town of Hempstead and his legal career as a tax attorney for Ernst & Young.

In 2023, Mr. Napolitano was honored with the Long Island Herald's Top Lawyers Award for Personal Injury. Mr. Napolitano is actively involved in charitable and community institutions, serving on various committees for the Arthritis Foundation, Long Island chapter and St. Anthony's High School, Melville, New York.
