

Richard A. Brook

Shareholder and General Counsel

1350 Broadway
New York, New York 10018
(212) 239-4999
rbrook@msek.com

Practice Areas

Labor Law

Education

Columbia University School of Law
J.D., 1991

Stone Scholar: 1989, 1990, 1991
Recipient of Valentin J.T. Wertheimer Prize in Labor Law
Recipient of Olin Junior Fellowship

Columbia College
B.A., 1991
Summa Cum Laude

Memberships

AFL-CIO Lawyers Coordinating Committee,
Board of Directors

Bronx House,
Board of Directors

Peggy Browning Fund,
Advisory Board

Workmen's Circle,
Board of Directors

Admissions

New York State

U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York

U.S. District Court, Eastern District
of New York

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit

Richard A. Brook is a Shareholder of Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C. and its General Counsel. He has been part of its Labor and Employment groups since 1999.

Mr. Brook's national practice involves representation of international and local labor unions and benefit funds in all aspects of labor and employment law. He has participated in proceedings before various forums at all levels of the federal and state courts, the National Labor Relations Board, the National Mediation Board, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the New York State Division of Human Rights, the New York Public Employment Relations Board, the New York State Department of Labor, the New Jersey Department of Labor, the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law, the Teamsters' Election Officer and Election Appeals Master, and the Laborers' Independent Hearing Officer and Appellate Officer. He also regularly represents union clients in arbitrations. Mr. Brook is a member of the Board of Directors of the AFL-CIO Union Lawyers Alliance.

In 2024, Mr. Brook was featured in City & State New York's Trailblazer's in Law. In 2022, he was named one of the nation's leading attorneys in Long Island Business News' Who's Who in Intellectual Property and Labor Law.