Robert F. Regan is Of Counsel at Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C. and is a member of the Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department in the firm's Garden City office.

Mr. Regan is experienced in complex commercial litigation matters, including partnership and shareholder disputes, banking and finance matters, secured transactions, fraudulent transfer and preference actions in bankruptcy court, contract disputes, land use proceedings, commercial landlord/tenant matters, and copyright and trademark violations. In addition, he has represented major national banks and other secured lenders in disputes with defaulting commercial borrowers.

Mr. Regan started his legal career as a Judicial Law Clerk for the State of Connecticut. In that role, he worked with Superior Court Judges and was directly involved in the process of drafting judicial decisions and deciding cases. Prior to joining Meyer Suozzi, Mr. Regan was associated in an Of Counsel capacity with another Long Island-based law firm, where he advised clients in a wide range of commercial litigation matter. Most recently, Mr. Regan was an administrative law judge in New York City. He also worked as a supervising attorney in the Office of the General Counsel for the New York City Department of Education.

Mr. Regan received his J.D., with honors, from the University at Buffalo School of Law and was a Senior Member of the Buffalo Law Review. He also received a B.A. from the State University of New York at Binghamton.
