Jack Rubinstein is a member of the Tax Certiorari and Condemnation practice and has been a Shareholder at Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C. since 1993. His office is in Garden City, Long Island, N.Y. Mr. Rubinstein provides a full range of real estate tax assessment services representing his clients in commercial and residential tax assessment reduction proceedings, projecting real estate taxes in connection with the purchase, development and improvement of properties, and advising clients regarding tax exemptions. Mr. Rubinstein has handled hundreds of tax certiorari cases involving both commercial and residential properties. These cases have resulted in substantial refunds. In the area of eminent domain, his representation has helped property owners and tenants obtain damages against county, town and local condemning authorities.

Mr. Rubinstein is rated "AV Preeminent" by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest level of professional excellence and he has been recognized by Long Island Pulse Magazine as one of the region's "Top Legal Eagles".

Prior to joining Meyer Suozzi in 1986, Mr. Rubinstein was an associate with a large tax certiorari law firm in New York City.
