Leonard J. Wiener is an associate in the firm's Personal Injury group at Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C. with offices located in Garden City, Long Island and Manhattan, New York. Throughout his career, Mr. Wiener has successfully represented hundreds of clients and recovered millions of dollars on their behalf.

Mr. Wiener has significant experience effectively representing clients who have been seriously injured in a wide range of personal injury matters. Mr. Wiener's practice focuses on representing injured victims of construction accidents, car accidents, slip/trip and fall accidents, medical malpractice, wrongful death, and other general tort claims. Mr. Wiener is involved in all phases of litigation including intake, investigation, pleadings, discovery, depositions, motion practice, settlement negotiations, trial preparation, and appellate practice. His practice is based on dedication, attention to detail, and personalized service to each client, which has enabled him to achieve maximum recovery.

Notable experience includes:

- In 2018-2023, Mr. Wiener was selected by Super Lawyers to the New York Metro Rising Stars. He shares this distinction with no more than 2.5 percent of attorneys in each state.
- Mr. Wiener serves as a Board Member of the William D. Wernicoff Children's Foundation.

Prior to joining Meyer Suozzi in March of 2022, Mr. Wiener was a member of a personal injury law firm located in New York, NY.
